Tales of the Serendip: Volume I

With no specific author or authors whose presumed last intention, or lack thereof, has served until now as a crutch for explaining and determining the correct lessons of the text, we are left with a literary work whose text is the result of the cumulative effort of multiple anonymous authors and, to a lesser but in no way insignificant extent, of correctors, book sellers, sponsors and printers. God's grace is moving everywhere and rolls without end.
